

FUNDING AND REIMBURSEMENT

The Certified Defense Financial Manager™ (CDFM) is an investment in your career— but not an investment you have to make alone! Most departments and employers offer financial assistance for pursuing or maintaining CDFM

The Credentialing Opportunities On-Line (COOL) program helps service members and government civilians find information on civilian certifications and licenses related to their profession. COOL programs may pay for training, materials, and/or exams that lead to industry-recognized civilian credentials. For a direct link to the COOL program for your component (Army, Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps, Coast Guard, and DoD Civilian), visit cool.osd.mil/
