Who are the attendees?

The SDFM 25th Anniversary CDFM Gala is designed to celebrate 25 years of the Certified Defense Financial Manager (CDFM) program, which is considered the gold standard in defense financial management.

- Attendees are decision-makers and influencers in federal financial and tech modernization.
- They value credentialed expertise, mission alignment, and innovative solutions.

The target audience for this event includes:

- Current and aspiring CDFM-certified professionals
- Members of the defense financial management community (military, civilian, and contractors)
- Corporate partners and sponsors involved in defense financial operations
- Government and DoD financial leaders
- SDFM members and chapter leaders
- Industry stakeholders who support national security and financial management initiatives

The Gala is aimed at professionals who are part of or connected to the defense financial management ecosystem and those who value the certification's role in advancing fiscal accountability and mission readiness.
