Strategy & Resources Summit

Exhibitor & Sponsorship Prospectus 2026

January 22, 2026 Carahsoft, Reston, VA

The SDFM Strategy and Resources Summit is a premier annual one-day, in-person event that brings together senior leaders from government and industry to advance financial readiness across the defense enterprise. Tailored for professionals in defense financial management, including budget and program execution experts, audit and compliance specialists, and strategic resource advisors—the summit focuses on aligning financial strategy with mission outcomes.

Through expert-led panels and interactive sessions, attendees gain actionable insights into key areas such as audit readiness and success, health program financing, strategic resource allocation, and budget transitions. The summit emphasizes forward-looking approaches to optimizing defense resources, enhancing fiscal agility, and strengthening financial decision-making in support of national security objectives.

Participants benefit from high-impact programming, best practices, and networking with key decision-makers. Exhibitors have the opportunity to engage directly with influential stakeholders, showcase innovative solutions, and contribute to the evolving priorities of the defense financial management community.
